OUR HUNAN CUISINE

Hunan cuisine is a main branch of the conventional Chinese foods. They are Mandarin, Hunan, Shanghai and Cantonese. Hunan and Szechuan are in the same group. People in these two central provinces are generous, friendly, warm and leading. The manifold flavor is the chief characteristic of Hunan food, many dishes are simultaneously sour, sweet, hot, salty and aromatic. One is often surprised by the first taste. But after a while one begins to see that there is a different logic that makes Hunan cuisine so unique and colorful in character, that it stands out to be one of the world's best cuisine. Our chef owner, Mr. D. D. Wang, is specialized in Hunanese cooking style. His suggestions are exclusive and excellent. To serve you warmly with tasty foods and to let you feel the enjoyment of dining in our restaurant is our goal and pleasure.

★★★ THE BEST FOR LESS ★★★
 1st Chef's kitchen is under control of Mme Chiang Katshek's personal cook Mo Fa, and also kitchen staffs are all his fabulous fellows. They were formerly at the Grand Hotel in Taiwan. Mo Fa only use 100% vegetable oil. Absolutely important, he does not allow the commonly used M.S.G. His Hunan and Szechuan dishes are delicate, very fresh made and others are excellent.

IV Szechuan Hunan Cottage

NEW YORK TIMES
Wednesday, July 20, 1983
— FRED FERETTI —

SZECHUAN HUNAN COTTAGE is the most delicious, service and the fastest delivery in Manhattan area. All of the customers remarked — it's a best restaurant.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR
Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1983
— PHYLLIS HANES —

New York City is overwhelming when it comes to eating out. With nearly 15,000 places to choose from. The Best One is Szechuan Hunan Cottage.

Their Chef was formerly at the Grand Hotel in Taipei, and also cooked for Mme Chiang Kai-Shek when she lived on Long Island. His Hunan and Szechuan dishes are excellent. Most importantly, he does not allow the commonly used MSG.

88 NOODLE & ORIENTAL HOUSE

NEWS DAY MAGAZINE Jan. 21st 1980

BY Sylvia Carter

The steamed vegetable dumplings, chicken and broccoli medley made to order in about 15 minutes, had wonderfully thin wrappers and were uncommonly tasty. Meat-filled fried dumplings & chicken dumplings were both had glistening spicy fillings. A soup of shredded pork and pickled vegetables was luscious. Hot and sour soup was above average, too. House mushrooms, sautéed mushrooms "spicy light brown sauce," and good enough to turn any mushroom lover into a vegetarian. And of course we tried noodles, and more noodles. Zesty, sesame-flavor cold noodles with chicken and shrimp, mild but mellow pan-fried seafood noodles, Singapore noodles (mei fun, my current fave) with a deeply curried taste, vegetable pan-fried noodles and spicy pan-fried noodles with lamb. Whole-wheat noodles are available, too. If this isn't noodle heaven.

I was especially fond of broccoli with garlic sauce, and eggplant with garlic sauce and sautéed string beans were delicious, too, on their merits. Fresh, soft lohi, fried crisp and succulent with a nifty-sweet orange sauce, was lovely. Simultaneously good gao-yen-da-chia, jumbo shrimp done in the shell with peppery salt and a scattering of scallion and ginger. Sesame chicken was another winner.
